

The map displays a detailed topographic view of the Nassau (Lahn) area. A red line traces a hiking route through the landscape, which is characterized by green hills and valleys. Key locations marked include Nassau (Lahn) with its castle, Seelbach, Attenhausen, and various smaller settlements like Bergnassau and Dornholzhausen. The Lahn river is shown flowing through the region. Elevation points are marked with triangles and numbers, such as 391m, 308m, 260m, 241m, 223m, and 336m. A scale bar in the bottom left corner shows 1 km and 3000 ft. A legend box labeled 'Wegpunkte' (Waypoints) is located in the bottom left corner, containing symbols for a train station, a bus stop, and a parking area. The map also shows various roads and trails, with some roads marked with numbers like 100 and 101.

